

Training Seminar: “The Role of Interaction of Government, Law Enforcement, and Community-based Organizations in Preventing Inter-ethnic, Inter-racial, and Inter-religious Extremism”

Training Center of the Main Office of Internal Affairs (GUVD) of St. Petersburg and Leningradskaya oblast, Pushkin, Sofiyskiy Blvd. _

December 19, 2007

- 11.00 Departure of the St. Petersburg participants of the seminar to Pushkin
- 12.00 Opening of the seminar. Moderators: Deputy Head of the Training Center Col. V. A. Artemiev and Director of the St. Petersburg Tolerance Center V. A. Kokko
- 12.10 Official greeting: Deputy Head of the Training Center Col. V. A. Artemiev
- 12.20 Presentation of the representative of the Council of Veterans of the MVD and Advisor to the Head of the GUVD on veterans’ affairs Gen. Maj. L. A. Pinchuk
- 12.45 “The notion of tolerance” – presentation of the representative of the St. Petersburg Tolerance Center L. A. Lvov
- 13.00 “Specifics of teaching in multi-ethnic classes” – presentation of the instructor of the Training Center Col. K. F. Vyakkerev
- 13.15 Questions and Discussion
- 13.30 Lunch
- 14.30 Presentation of the training program “Veterans of the MVD in preventing extremism in schools” – instructor of the Training Center Lt. Col. A. Ya. Pevzner
- 15.10 “The work of the Tolerance Center to prevent extremism” – presentation of the Director of the St. Petersburg Tolerance Center V. A. Kokko
- 15.50 Coffee break
- 16.15 Round table discussion, summing up results, identifying the parameters of the training course for veterans of the MVD
- 17.00 Closing seminar
- 17.15 Standing reception, informal discussion
- 18.00 Departure of the St. Petersburg participants of the seminar to St. Petersburg

The number of participants of the seminar – 24, including veterans of the MVD, instructors of the Training Center, officers of the Moskovskiy Police Department, representatives of the Department of Education of Pushkinskiy district, and members of the St. Petersburg Tolerance Center.